Chicago-based Stratford Advisory Group Expands Senior Consulting Team.

Chicago, IL – April 22, 2009 – Chicago-based Stratford Advisory Group, Inc. (Stratford) expands its senior consultant staff with the promotion of two consultants: Alyssa B. Cheatham, CFA and Cori E. Trautvetter.

Ms. Cheatham joined Stratford in 1999 and Ms. Trautvetter followed in 2000, both as investment analysts. They will continue to provide investment consulting services to Stratford clients and participate in the firm's research effort. Both are members of Stratford's Investment Committee and are responsible for supervising Stratford's investment analyst professionals.

Tom Dodd, President, stated: "This promotion goes beyond just rewarding their years of experience and leadership at Stratford, but underscores the type of work ethic and dedicated client service everyone at our company values and strives for."

Stratford Advisory Group, Inc. (Stratford) is an independent, full-service investment consulting firm, registered as an investment advisor with the SEC under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. Stratford is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Clark & Wamberg, LLC.
